State of Colorado Update

In today's Governor Polis press conference, an announcement was made that all bars and nightclubs are to be closed once again for in person service. Bars will continue to be able to sell take-out alcohol. Bars that now serve food, and function as a restaurant, can stay open for in-person service so long as:

- Patrons MUST be 6 feet apart
- Patrons are seated with their own party
- No mingling is allowed
